Her magnetic aura especially resonates with women in leadership and entrepreneurial spirits invested in coaching, consulting, and course creation on a global scale. At the core of Valarie's mission is the immutable belief that stepping out of one's comfort zone is the first step toward unveiling the greatness that awaits within. And so, she continues to ignite that belief in hearts worldwide, empowering them to become the change-makers they were predestined to be.

Dr. Valarie's Signature Talks

Mastering the Seven Pillars of Stepping Out of Your Comfort Zone - The journey of stepping out of one's comfort zone is a transformative odyssey guided by seven monumental pillars: Prayer, Passion, Purpose, Potential, Persistence, Positive Mindset, and Preparation. These pillars are more than mere concepts; they are the bedrock upon which the building of your aspirations can be built.

Balance and Prioritizing Your Life Matters - In this workshop, you will learn strategies to balance your life as you prioritize your holistic health, spiritual, family, career, ministry, self-care, growth mindset, and financial obligations. You will leave this workshop empowered with the tools you need to flourish to your fullest potential.

Leading with Purpose, Passion, and Potential - As a leader, sometimes it is challenging but worth it to find your niche. In this session, you will feel excited about being gifted and talented to equip, train, inspire and encourage those you lead. Why am I saying this? Remember, when your passion is in the driver's seat of your life, it will move you towards your vision to pursue your purpose, which will unlock your hidden potential. You will leave this session empowered, understanding that you have everything inside of you to be a winner.
